Grant for Participating in the TATE 8th International Conference and Exhibition

The deadline for financial support applications is 26 October 2022

Grant

The U.S. Embassy, Tunis, will offer limited financial support to 35 basic education, secondary education, vocational training, university teachers as well as MA and Ph.D. students to defray the costs of attending the TATE 2020 International Conference and exhibition. Candidates must demonstrate financial need. Preference will be given to participants who currently serve in under-resourced communities or are from remote regions, who have not benefited from previous scholarships.

Application Process:

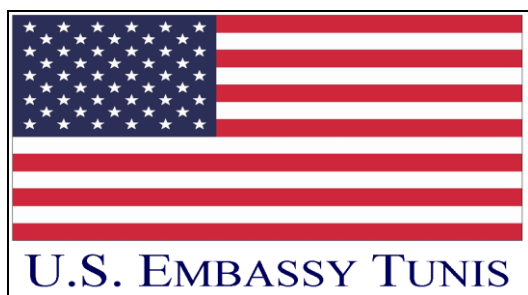

1. Please fill out the attached application form and submit it and a copy of your resume by October 26, 2022.
2. TATE & the US Embassy steering committee will review applications and make the selection according to the following criteria:
 - * Applications from participants who currently serve in under-resourced communities or are from remote regions
 - * Applications from participants who demonstrate financial need.
3. Results will be announced shortly afterward.
